

This document describes the forecasting formalism underlying the augur code. This is used for determining modelling decisions.